Army Football Players Pitted Against Navy

Game Scheduled at National Park for Thanksgiving Day.

Washingtonians will be assured one heavy-weight football game on Thanksgiving Day irrespective of the result of the Georgetown-George Washington controversy.

A picked team from the United States Army will play an eleven made up from the Navy's football stars. The contract for National Park was closed this morning by T. A. Spratts, who is in charge of the business end of the contest. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

The promoters of the enterprise hope to arrange for an annual contest between picked teams from the two branches of the military service. Two years ago such a game was played, but the best remembered contest was four years ago at the Polo Grounds, in New York city, when the Army, by a sensational run, scored a touchdown and won by 5 to 0.

Washington was chosen as a more desirable place for the games in the future on account of the army and navy interests centered here. Officials of both departments are heartily backing the idea and a liberal patronage is assured the players at National Park on Thanksgiving Day.

Yale Varsity Shows Rare Form Against Freshies and Scrubs

Team Thoroughly Coached in Manipulation of Forward Pass.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 31.—The Yale football team scored five touchdowns yesterday in a lively scrimmage, first with the freshmen and then with the second eleven.

Frank Butterworth, who was again the life of the coaching staff, did not feel that the regulars had made the most of their opportunities, but he praised the runs of Tad Jones and Coy, who were backs in the scrimmage.

Clinton Rorback, the former center, joined the coaching squad and took Cooney and Cooney in hand and Rorback's presence led Cooney to cut loose and tear through the scrub line, seize a fumbled ball and rush thirty yards for a touchdown.

He is fast absorbing the technique of the game at center, thanks to Flanders, who was back in the scrum, took it over.

Coy and Tad Jones were decidedly benefited by their lay-off. Coy played for the first time since the Villanova game, and his short rest in the country put him in tiptop condition.

One of the features of the play yesterday was a fake kick run, which resulted in a thirty-yard gain and a touchdown. Fred Murphy, right halfback, who kept his feet well and was a factor in the game, was back in the scrum, taking the ball to the scrubs' 1-yard line, where Foster, who played in the second half in Captain Eglow's place, took it over.

The team was coached in the use of the forward pass, and Coy and Howard Jones worked for two substantial gains. Jones ran thirty-five yards for a touchdown on one.

G. W. U.-G. U. MANAGERS TO MEET

Wilson and Fitzgerald to Discuss Contract Tonight.

Graduate Manager Ed. Wilson, of George Washington University, is to meet Manager Fitzgerald, of the Georgetown football team tonight and have a talk with him about the "Thanksgiving Day" football game between the two institutions, which is now held up because Georgetown demands 40 instead of 50 per cent of the net receipts.

Mr. Wilson said this morning there were only two copies of the contract for the annual football game between the two schools. One of those was in the possession of Mr. Wilson, and the other in that of Manager Ball, of the Georgetown Washington University eleven, who borrowed it about a month ago to familiarize himself with its conditions. Mr. Wilson said this morning:

"I do not believe Fitzgerald knew yesterday that the contract distinctly calls for three games for the championship cup, and did not expect when Georgetown happened to win two out of the first three matches and the cup. The contract is very explicit on that point, but it was not generally so understood by many of those interested. I think that is what is the matter with Fitzgerald."

Our position remains the same and we do not see why we should back down in the least to allow Georgetown to make its claim for extra money at this late date. Nor do I think the Georgetown students or faculty will support Fitzgerald when the contract is set before them."

Manager Fitzgerald, at Georgetown, this morning, continued his policy of refusing to make any further statement, but is said to have told private individuals there would be no Thanksgiving game unless Georgetown consented to give up the extra money for the new bleachers on Georgetown field.

Candidates Out For Basketball At Business Gym

Business High will be the first school to call out candidates and begin basketball practice.

Mr. Boernstein, the athletic advisor at the commercial school, expects to get the candidates together before the end of the week and be ready to begin practice immediately after the close of the football season. The Business outfit was very successful in this branch of athletics last year, being champions of the loosely organized league which existed, and present indications point to a much stronger team this season.
